Stoneydown Park Year 1

BLACK HISTORY MONTH 2025

What we did...

Art: We explored skin tones through painting self portraits.

PSHE: We recognised what makes us unique.

Geography: We learnt about people and communities from around the world.

Science: We named different parts of my face and discussed their relevance.

Learning outcomes:

- ★ To recognise what makes each person special and unique
- ★ To appreciate and respect different skin tones and hairstyles
- ★ To begin to understand and celebrate other cultures

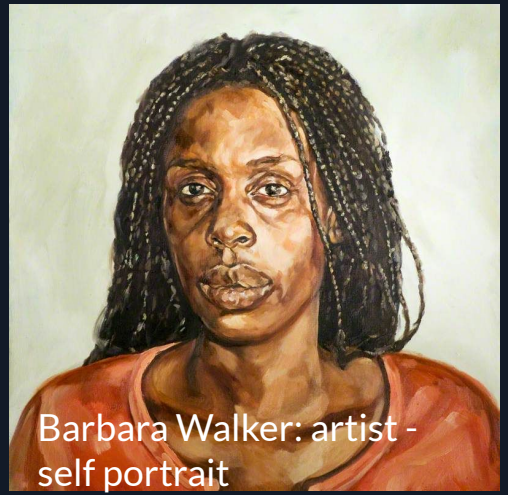
Celebrating Me!

Inclusion, Self-Awareness, Celebrating Differences

I am special because…

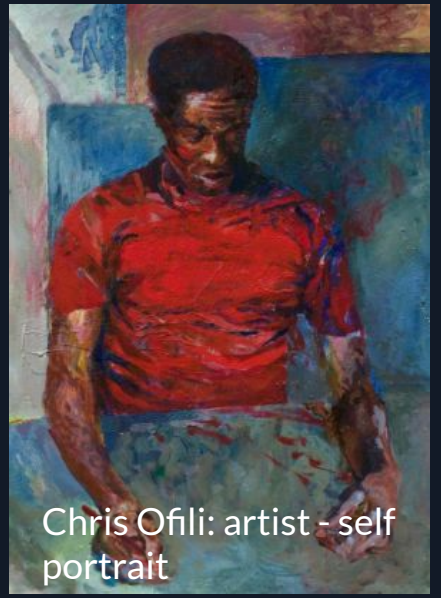
Portraits of inspirational Black people

Zadie Smith - author



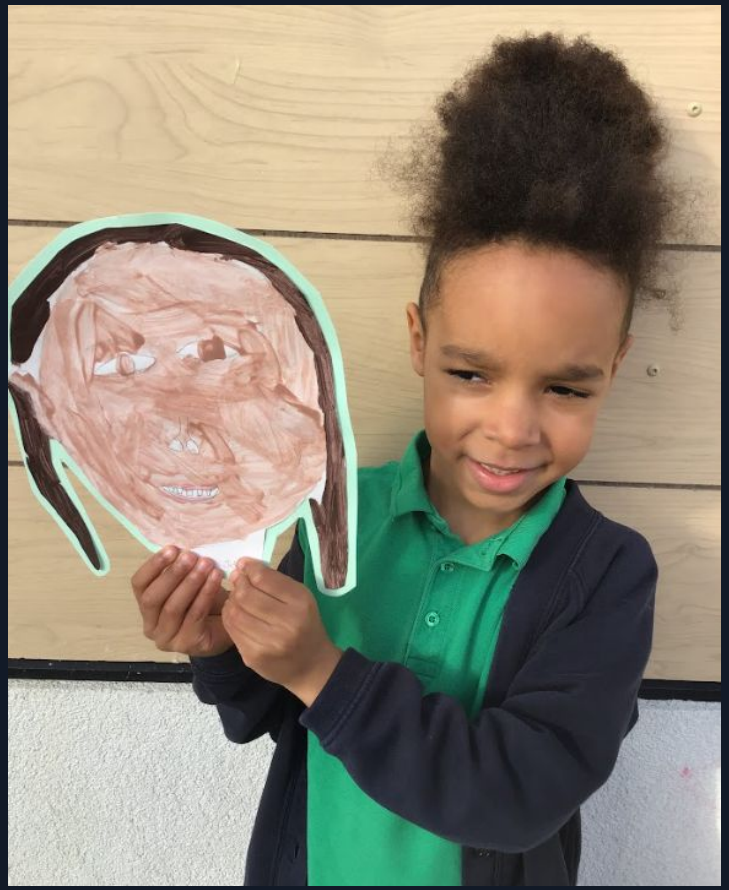
Barbara Walker: artist - self portrait

Desmond Haughton: artist - self portrait

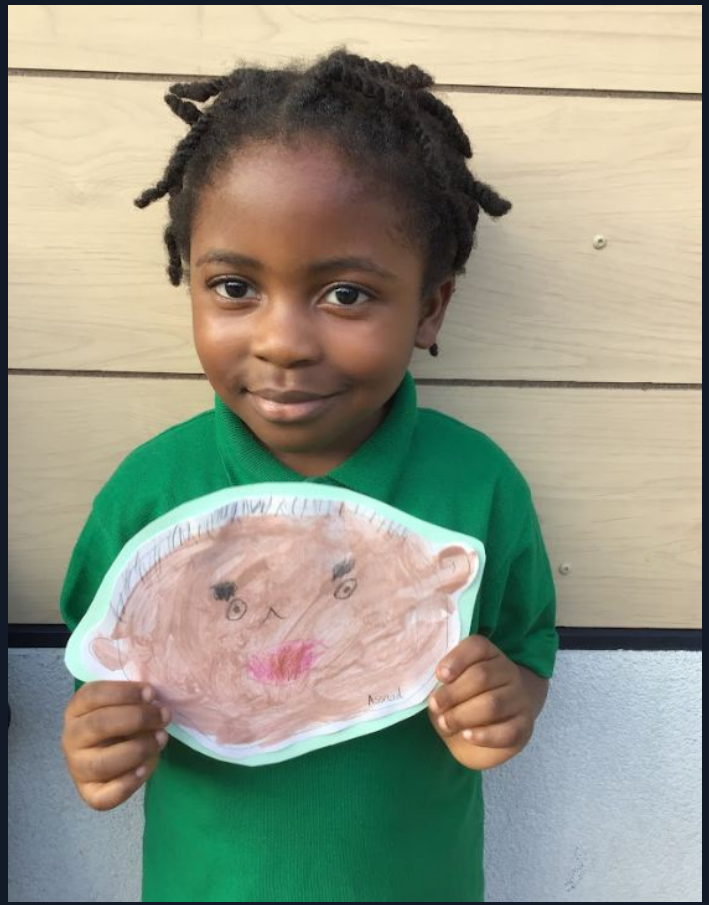


Chris Ofili: artist - self portrait

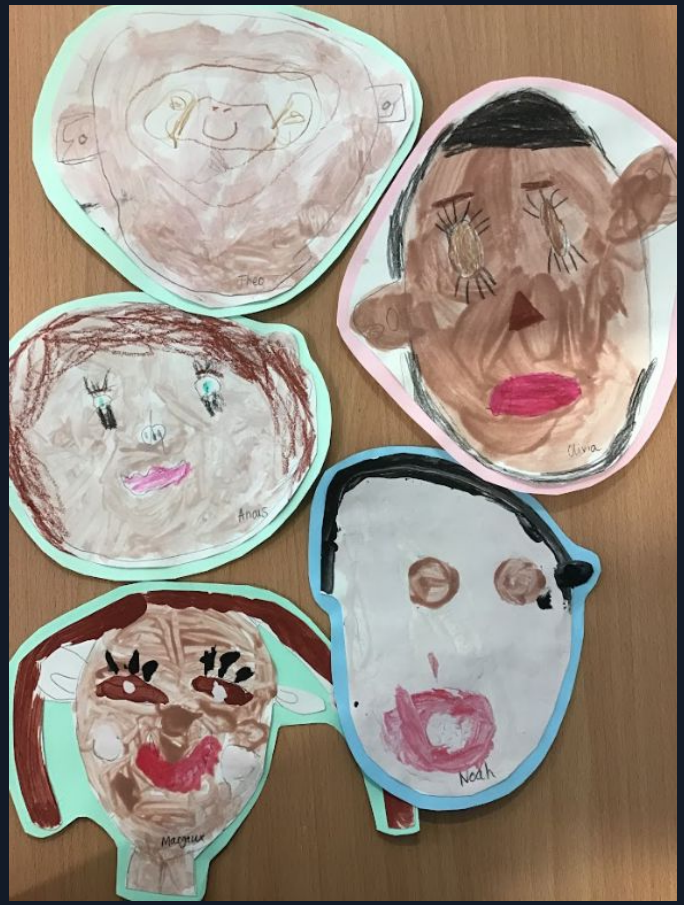
Our portraits

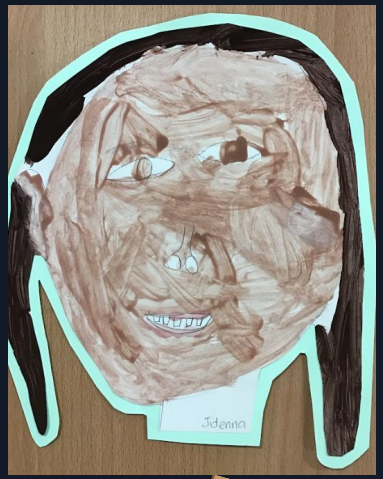


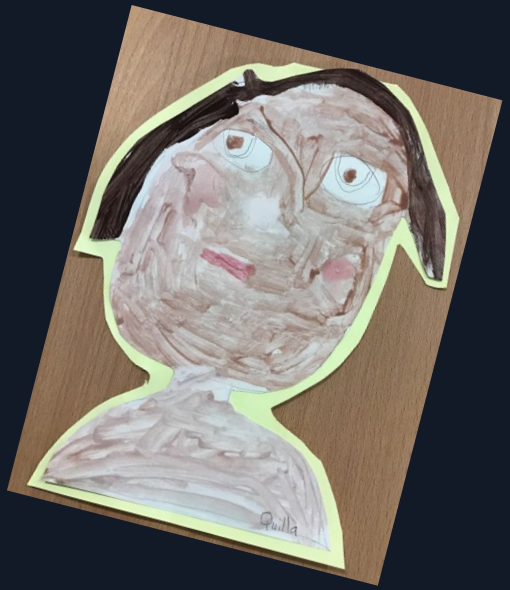
Our portraits

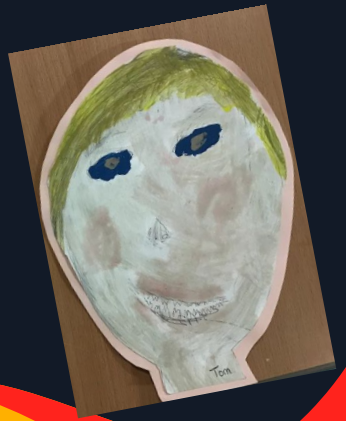


Our portraits



Our portraits






Our portraits